UM PERFORMERS SLATE SCHOLARSHIP BENEFIT

MISSOULA—

Showtime '71, a variety show starring the University of Montana's most gifted entertainers, will be staged in the Music Recital Hall on campus Friday, Feb. 5, at 8:15 p.m., and Saturday, Feb. 6, at 7 and 9 p.m.

John L. Lester, acting dean of the School of Fine Arts, who founded and for many years directed the annual benefit performance, said that proceeds from Showtime constitute the largest single source of scholarship funds administered by the UM Music School Foundation.

This year's show will be directed by George D. Lewis of the voice faculty. Esther England, instructor in voice, is co-director. Donald R. Collins, Missoula, senior music major, is production coordinator.

The Jubileers, the Music Theater Quintet, and other University groups will present a program which includes production numbers from Broadway shows and other types of musical drama.

Time and place of ticket sales will be announced soon, Lester said.
